At Waterville Country Club - 39 Country Club Rd., Oakland
Active Shooter or Threat – Is Your Business Prepared?
 Shawn O’Leary, executive vice president of Dirigo Safety

Active shooter training is one of several proactive steps organizations can take to prepare employees and managers to respond appropriately to an active shooter incident. While the likelihood of an active shooter event is rare, all employees should know how to recognize the signs of potential violence and what their role is during an active shooter situation. Active shooter training strengthens and reinforces an organization’s emergency action plan and can help reduce the risk of an incident occurring.

Dec. 3, 2020 – 7:15 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

At Best Western Plus – 375 Main St., Waterville
The Power and Impact of the Written Word in Business.

This is a facilitated discussion by Ted Helberg on using effective and accurate word choice, grammar, and organization in business writing. It will interject a little humor, discussion on common errors, and methods to correct them.

Ted Helberg is a recently retired business executive. He worked in Human Resources for almost forty years in several industries. He also served as an adjunct instructor of English at several colleges. In graduate school he was a teaching assistant in English, tutor for law students, and helped create a national grammar hotline.
